Reducing Parent Stress through Effective Parent Training

Think about 1 past supervisor you have had that you admired. What was it about how they interacted with you that made such an important difference?

Now think about 1 past supervisor you struggled with. What was it about how they interacted with you that made it difficult?

Think about staff or parents you are having trouble connecting with. What makes the interactions with this person difficult?

You know more than you think

There's a big difference between providing training and building a partnership that motivates the other person to take meaningful action. It's natural for it to feel unnatural at first.

Completing this Mission provides the guidance you need to develop partnerships on your own!
