

The Moral Tightrope: Why good people sometimes choose the wrong path

Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to identify factors that might put you at risk for engaging in fraudulent behavior and take steps to safeguard your career.. To accomplish this mission, you will:

- Download the Mission Resources
- Complete the lessons
- Take the quizzes
- Review the research
- Complete the workbook
- Choose strategies you will implement
- Celebrate the success of your Completed Mission

Tip: Take the time to reflect on contingencies that might be putting you or your staff at risk for engaging in fraudulent behavior. Even "good" people sometimes engage in "bad" behavior when the contingencies exist.

Mission Resources:

- Links to research articles
- Links to news articles
- The Moral Tightrope workbook
- And more!

The Moral Tightrope

What situations have pushed you to question your personal ethics?

Have you ever engaged in behavior that made you feel unethical?

What strategies do you use to maintain a high standard of personal ethics?

You are more susceptible to engaging in unethical behavior than you think

There's a big difference between knowing what's right and doing it. It's natural to feel tempted or pressured at times..

Completing this Mission provides the guidance you need to develop a plan to safeguard your personal ethics and your career..!